CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the Lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the seller cannot decide the said dispute.

II. No person to advance less than 6*d.*; above ten shillings, 1*s.*; above five pounds, 2*s.* 6*d.*; and so on.

III. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.

IV. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. S. LEIGH SOTHEBY and JOHN WILKINSON will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expense, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. S. LEIGH SOTHEBY and JOHN WILKINSON will have the option of reselling the lots uncleared either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.

V. The books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.

VI. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. The sale of any lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration, of the numbers stated, or errors of description.

VII. The Manuscripts will be sold with all faults and errors of description.

VIII. No IMPERFECT BOOK will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.

IX. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.

X. Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the reselling of such books as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such Re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

S. LEIGH SOTHEBY & JOHN WILKINSON,
Wellington Street, Strand.

242 Head of Venus in terra-cotta, Figure of Satyr, and another, in bas-relief 3

243 Etruscan Vase, with high handle; Another, smaller; and various Fragments, in terra-cotta, from Tarsus 8

244 Impressions of rare Coins and other objects, in lead, and curious bronze Stamp, with inscription

245 RARE AND UNPUBLISHED COINS. A Collection of many hundred sealing-wax impressions of rare and unpublished Coins and Medals

 THIS INTERESTING COLLECTION IS RENDERED VERY VALUABLE AND INSTRUCTIVE from the circumstance of the names and metals being written on the cards containing the impressions, which had been taken by Mr. Burgon during a long course of Numismatic study.

246 A Press for taking impressions of Coins in gutta percha, with a Box of Specimens

247 Two other Presses for the same purpose

248 BABYLONIAN CYLINDERS. A Cabinet containing coloured sulphur Casts of rare Babylonian Cylinders, also the interesting types on flat tablets, exhibiting the subject at one view

249 Card Board Receptacles for Casts of Coins, and circular pieces of Cloth for lining the holes in coin trays, contained in a box 1

250 Two Boxes containing two thousand interesting specimens of Plaster Moulds of Coins, formerly in Mr. Burgon's Collection

251 Sulphur Casts of many hundred Coins, formerly in Mr. Burgon's Collection, contained in four cases

252 Gutta percha and plaster Casts of ancient Coins and some Moulds

253 Coloured sulphur Casts of Roman Medallions and Large Brass Coins

254 Plaster Casts of Athenian Coins in the Duke de Luynes' Collection

255 Spears, and other Warlike Implements, and a finely engraved Paddle from the South Sea Islands

256 A Pair of excellent Scales, with set of French weights

257 ANOTHER PAIR OF SCALES, WITH BEAM OF SUPERIOR CONSTRUCTION, AND BOX OF WEIGHTS from $\frac{1}{10}$ of a grain up to 1000 grains

 These scales were used by Mr. Burgon in his numismatic labours, and often greatly assisted him in determining the genuineness of a coin that might otherwise admit of doubt, for by ascertaining the precise weight, a grand desideratum, he succeeded in settling matters of difficulty.
